

God is the Creator and Protector of His Kingdom
Hebrews 10:32-11:3, Genesis 1

As Christians, we must constantly ask ourselves how our _____ with _____ is doing.

It's important to think back to when you first came to faith in Christ and how much you _____ Him even though you may have _____.

Hebrews 10:32-33; Revelation 2:4-5

Hebrews was _____ to give you _____ so that you will not give up even though you suffer loss.

Hebrews 10:34

Sometimes when _____ gets _____, we're tempted to ditch the faith. Don't do it.

Hebrews 10:35-36

Get your eyes off your _____ and look forward in faith to being with Jesus for eternity.

Hebrews 10:37

All that Jesus did must _____ us to keep moving forward in _____, fearing falling away.

Hebrews 10:38

True believers will not deny Christ so that they are _____.

Hebrews 10:39a

For the sake of your own _____, keep _____ in your faith in Christ.

Hebrews 10:39b; 3:14; Mark 13:13

_____ is superior to _____.

Faith causes us to see beyond the moment to the _____ and _____ dwelling place of God.

Hebrews 11:1, 16

Faith brings a _____ which _____ all that is visible.

Hebrews 11:1

Faith is _____, while sight alone has nothing to be commended for since it does not require _____.

Romans 8:24-25

The author is leading the reader to _____ how the faith of the Old Testament saints was _____ in their lives.

Hebrews 11:2

All people from the beginning of time were only commended by the Father through faith in _____.

Hebrews 13:8

Faith gives a _____ for all that is seen.

Faith, rather than _____, gives meaning to creation.

Hebrews 11:3

Faith in God as Creator causes us to believe that what is _____ was _____ into existence.

Hebrews 11:3

Jesus is the reason that _____ and _____ exist.

John 1:1-3, 10; Colossians 1:15-17

1 Corinthians 8:6

Creation exists as a means through which God _____ His _____.

God displays His _____ to all mankind.

Matthew 5:44-45

God displays His _____ to those whom He has chosen as His own.

Romans 8:28-30; Ephesians 1:3-10