

Citizens in God's Kingdom Have Their Hope in Heaven
Hebrews 11:13-16

True believers _____ and _____ in faith in Christ.

The author has already spoken of how these faithful saints _____ (vv. 1-12); now how they _____.
Hebrews 11:13

True faith believes even though it doesn't _____ things _____ in this life.
Hebrews 11:13, 39

True faith eagerly sees with _____.
Hebrews 11:13; John 8:56; 1 Peter 1:10-12

True faith has a _____ of life.
Hebrews 11:13; Ephesians 2:17-22

True faith is evident when the believer seeks a _____ to call home.
Hebrews 11:14; 13:14; 2 Peter 3:13

Even though true believers have the opportunity to _____ Christ and cling to the world, right thinking keeps them _____ to that which is to come.

True faith keeps the believer's _____ from going back to the _____ of the carnal mind.
Hebrews 11:15; Ephesians 4:20-24
1 Peter 1:14-16

God does not _____ the _____ to return to the pleasures of this world, but true faith rejects those opportunities.
Hebrews 11:15; Genesis 24:1-9

The true believer _____ more than this _____ can offer.

True believers have a _____ for a better country: a heavenly one.

Hebrews 11:16; Exodus 3:6; Matthew 22:32
Hebrews 11:4

Because the true believer sees the new country through _____ in _____, God is not ashamed to be called their God.

Hebrews 11:16

We show that we are not _____ of God when we value _____ with Him over the pleasures of this world.

Mark 8:38

We show that we are not ashamed of God when we value the _____ He has _____ to us through the death of His Son.

2 Timothy 1:12

The heavenly country the true believer desires is the _____ which God has _____ specifically for them.

Hebrews 11:16; 11:10

Matthew 25:34; John 14:1-3