

Citizens in God's Kingdom Live by Faith, not Fear
Hebrews 11:23; Exodus 2:1-10

The faith spoken of in verse 23 is the faith exhibited by _____ during very difficult and dangerous times.
Hebrews 11:23

The _____ had reduced the Hebrews to _____.
Exodus 1:8-12

Pharaoh commanded the _____ to _____ every newborn Hebrew boy, which they refused to do.
Exodus 1:16-21

Pharaoh had commanded all the _____ to _____ the newborn sons of the Hebrews.
Exodus 1:22; Acts 7:19

The faith of Moses' parents drove them to obey _____, not _____.
Amram and Jochebed risked their own lives to _____ their _____ because they saw something special in him.

Hebrews 11:23; Exodus 2:1-2

It was not simply _____ appearance, but the _____ of God on the baby that made it an easy decision for his parents to hide him.
Acts 7:20; 1 Peter 3:3-4

Amram and Jochebed believed God's _____ to Abraham that a deliverer would be given.
Acts 7:6-7, 17-20; Genesis 3:15; 15:13-14; 50:24-25

Observing God's favor on their newborn son caused them to have an _____ faith that motivated them to _____ the king's order.
Hebrews 11:23; Matthew 10:28

When the child was 3 months old, their faith caused them to _____ to act in the child's life.
Instead of exposing the child to death in the Nile River, Jochebed _____ God would _____.
Exodus 2:3

The faith of Amram and Jochebed influenced their _____, who stood by, waiting for God to act.
Exodus 2:4

God did intervene by _____ the _____ of Pharaoh and his daughter so that she would have pity on the child.
Exodus 2:5-6

God rewarded the faith of Jochebed by allowing her to _____ her son for 3 years, and receive _____ for it.
Exodus 2:7-9

Moses' parents and Jesus' mother Mary, exemplify _____.
Moses' parents and Mary believed God and His _____ of a _____.
Luke 1:35, 38

Moses' and Jesus' births were _____ from the world.
Luke 2:7

Moses' and Jesus' _____ were _____ by a wicked king's edict.
Matthew 2:16-17

God _____ and _____ Moses and the Jesus.
Matthew 2:13-14

Do not be like the evil people who _____ the _____ whom God has provided to lead them out of Egypt.
Matthew 2:15; Acts 7:35-37; Hosea 11:1-4