

Faith in Christ Instills a Transcendent Hope
Hebrews 11:35-38

Faith in Christ moves Christians to live without a _____ of _____.

The miraculous restoration of life in Scripture is not normative, but is a _____ of the _____ to come for believers.

Hebrews 11:35

1. _____ and _____ lie in the power and control of God.

Acts 17:24-28

2. Human _____ (_____ and _____) cannot do what only God can do.

Matthew 6:27

3. The believer's hope is not in a _____ life, but in Christ who defeated death.

John 16:33

_____ in _____ is more important than temporary, earthly relief from suffering.

Hebrews 11:35; Philippians 3:10-11

1. Perseverance in suffering increases our opportunity to _____ to the sufficient _____ of Christ.

Acts 16:25-34

2. Perseverance in suffering provides more opportunities to _____ up _____ in heaven for Christ.

Matthew 6:19-21

True believers find their value in _____, not the _____.

Some believers suffer while they are _____ for _____ in this fallen world.

Hebrews 11:36; 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

Some believers suffer while they are _____ in _____ for Christ.

Hebrews 11:37; Psalm 72:14

Some believers suffer _____ for the sake of Christ.

Hebrews 11:37-38; Hebrews 10:34; 1 Peter 1:3-9

When God chooses to take His _____ child _____, it is a declaration of two things:

1. The unbelieving world is _____ of that believer's life of _____ in Christ.

Hebrews 11:38; Acts 13:46; Romans 2:5

2. God _____ His children and has prepared a _____ in _____, which we should long for.

Psalm 116:15; 2 Corinthians 5:1-8