

Jesus, the Resurrection and the Life
John 11:25

Jesus is continually _____ our _____ from this life to Himself.

We are always _____ to desire health and long life too much, expecting (_____) that Jesus share our desire.

_____ expected Jesus to share her desire for health and long life.

John 11:21

_____ expected Jesus to share her desire for health and long life.

John 11:32

The _____ expected Jesus to share their desire for health and long life.

John 11:36-37

In _____, Jesus allows us to face the reality of our _____.

John 11:5-6

Jesus desires to reveal the _____ of _____ through the issues of life and death.

For the believer, illness never leads to death but to _____.

John 11:4

Our unbelief is often couched in “_____” human _____.

Unbelief clouded the spiritual perspective of the _____.

John 11:11-16

Unbelief clouded the spiritual perspective of _____.

John 11:21-24

Unbelief clouded the spiritual perspective of _____.

John 11:32-36

Unbelief clouded the spiritual perspective of _____, even though she had just made a good _____.

John 11:27, 39

Jesus calls his followers to grow in their faith, believing that He is active in the _____ and the _____.

The death of Lazarus was for the purpose of increasing the faith of the _____.

John 11:14–15

The death of Lazarus was for the purpose of increasing the faith of _____.

John 11:25–26, 40

The resurrection of Lazarus from the dead, led many in the _____ to _____.

John 11:45

Jesus desires to give believers a richer, fuller _____ as they face _____ of various kinds; especially death.

Jesus is the _____ of _____ authority.

John 11:25; John 2:19; 10:17–18

Jesus has the authority over death, by the _____ of _____.

Acts 2:24, 32; 2 Corinthians 13:4

Because Jesus is the resurrection and the life, faith in Him is the only way to have _____.

John 11:25–26

Faith in Christ alone produces a _____.

John 11:27; 1 Timothy 6:12

It is not enough to _____ that Jesus has authority over death, one must _____ faith in Christ alone as the only way to eternal life.

John 11:47-53

Romans 10:8-13