

Turn to the Lord in Your Despair;
Salvation Belongs to the Lord
Psalm 3

It is not uncommon for the righteous to be _____ and _____ for their faith.

Psalm 3:1–2

_____ railed against David, declaring that God was out to get him and there was no _____ for him.

2 Samuel 16:7–8

At the cross, the people _____ Christ and declared that He was outside of God's _____.

Matthew 27:39-44; Psalm 71:10–11

Because of who _____ is, the righteous need not lose
_____.

Psalm 3:3–4

God is a _____ about me.

2 Thessalonians 3:3

God is my _____.

Isaiah 60:19

God is the _____ of my _____.

David turned to _____ in _____ even during this trial.

2 Samuel 16:11–12

Jesus rested in the Father as the One who would _____ His _____.

Psalm 31:5; Luke 23:46; Hebrews 12:2

God _____ and _____ the prayers of His own who are in distress.

Psalm 3:4

The righteous who trust in God, are truly at _____ though the ungodly seek to _____ them.

Psalm 3:5–6

David had already experienced God's protection when _____ was pursuing him to _____ him.

1 Samuel 24:15

Even though Jesus was pursued by the forces of _____,
he could _____ soundly without fear of death.

Matthew 8:24–26; John 8:20

Even in the sleep of _____, Jesus had no fear
since He believed in the _____ to come.

Luke 20:37–38

Those who oppose the _____, oppose _____ who will rescue the godly and pummel the wicked.

Psalm 3:7

_____ enemies were the enemies of _____.

2 Samuel 18:7–8

The enemies of those in _____, are the enemies of
_____.

2 Thessalonians 1:5–6

God _____ which is a gift purely from the gracious hand of God.

Psalm 3:8

Salvation is _____ of _____.

Revelation 7:10; 19:1; Romans 9:15–16

The _____ of God rests only on those who _____ to God through Christ.

Hebrews 6:7; Ephesians 1:3–4