

Christ is a Refuge to all Who Trust in Him
Psalm 5

Prayer is the _____ filled _____ of those who trust in God.
Though David was a king and faced troubles on every side, he never allowed the _____ to cause him to _____ praying.

Psalm 5:1-2

King David maintained the practice of _____ prayers while _____ closely for the answer to his prayers.

Psalm 5:2

Even though Jesus was persecuted, lied about and crucified, He _____ to the Father.

1 Peter 2:23

David's prayer included an honest _____ of God and His response to the _____.

God is too holy to _____ those who _____ Him.

Psalm 5:4

God _____ the _____ who persist in doing evil.

Psalm 5:5

_____ and _____ are detested by God.

Psalm 5:6

God commanded Jeremiah 3 times not to _____ for the _____ people of Israel.

Jeremiah 7:16; 11:14; 14:11

Jesus _____ to _____ for Judas or any of those whom the Father has not given Him.

John 17:9

David was committed to _____ God even though his enemies were seeking to _____ him.

A personal commitment to following God means _____ Him and _____ in His steadfast love.

Psalm 5:7

David was committed to keeping the _____ of _____ central in his life.

Psalm 5:7

Even in the _____ of the cross, Jesus kept His focus on the Lord and being in His _____.

Luke 23:42-43

Those who are not for God, are against Him, making them _____ of God: do not take _____ from them but from those who direct you in the right way.

Psalm 5:8

Jesus warned believers of those who are _____, seeking to kill and destroy them: pray that God will give you a _____ heart that follows Christ.

John 10:10-11

Only _____ awaits the enemies of God who delight in the _____ of the godly.

Listening to the counsel of the _____ will only lead you to the same _____ that they will be receiving.

Psalm 5:9

The enemies of God will only face the _____ of God as they are cast into the eternal _____ of hell.

Psalm 5:10

Jesus declared that destruction would come upon those who falsely _____ Him and _____ Him.

Luke 19: 43-44; Luke 23:26-31

The _____ of God rests upon all who trust in Christ and seek to follow His commands.

Though enemies pursue and the ungodly seek to destroy, the faithful will rejoice in the _____ and _____ of God for them.

Psalm 5:11

Jesus was given the name that causes _____ to _____.

Psalm 148:13-14; Philippians 2:9-11

While this life is filled with _____ from the wicked, the godly take comfort in the _____ and _____ of God on them.

Psalm 5:12; Ephesians 1:15-23