

God Hears the Prayer of Those Who Trust in Him
Psalm 6

Recounting personal sin should lead us to be _____ over our _____ against Holy God.

David wishes to be _____ and _____ but pleads that God will not pour out His anger and wrath on Him.

Psalm 6:1; Hebrews 12:5-11

Only God's grace can bring healing to the _____
He has _____.

Psalm 6:2; 51:7-9

Like David, an awareness of the _____ of sin and suffering should _____ the soul of the true believer.

Psalm 6:3a; Matthew 26:38

Like David, the true believer _____ his _____ from sin and suffering to the Lord.

Psalm 6:3b; Matthew 26:39, 42

Those who _____ in God turn to Him in their _____.

The suffering believer calls upon God and His steadfast
_____, for _____.

Psalm 6:4; 25:6-7

David did not long for _____ but for life, that he might continue to _____ God to the people of earth.

Psalm 6:5; 30:9-10

The Apostle Paul helps us understand the _____
_____ of the believer.

Philippians 1:23-24

Those who are overwhelmed by sorrow and suffering should be _____ to take their sorrows to the Lord, but always _____ that God is holy, holy, holy.

Like David, there are times when _____ become the _____ of a broken heart.

Psalm 6:6-7; 31:9-10

We must be careful that we not impose our joy onto others when joy is not fitting for the moment: there is a time to _____ from the _____.

James 4:9-10

Jesus was a _____ of _____.

Isaiah 53:3; John 11:35; Hebrews 5:7

Faith-filled trust in God and rest in His _____ brings _____ to the sorrowful, suffering soul.

Like David, we need to _____ from those who are not good for our _____.

Psalm 6:8; 119:115

At the judgment, Christ will separate the _____ eternally from the _____.

Matthew 7:23; 25:41

The _____ to our spiritual depression comes from believing that the _____ hears our prayers.

Psalm 6:9; Hebrews 7:22-25; Romans 8:26

The _____ of your soul, who have _____ you to sin, will be judged by the One who loves you.

Psalm 6:10; 40:14; 56:9-11