

God Tests the Minds and Hearts
Psalm 7

Run to the Lord when people _____ and _____ you.
_____ in the Lord will never lead to _____.
Psalm 7:1a

Gossip and slander are evil because they are the attempted _____ of a person's _____ and they tear like a savage beast.
Psalm 7:1-2

The purpose of slander is to give just enough _____, taken out of _____ and twisted, to be able
condemn and degrade the other person.
Mark 14:56-58

The godly live is such _____ that they have nothing to _____ from God's judgment.

The godly do not repay _____ with _____.
Psalm 7:3-4; 1 Samuel 26:8-9

Jesus is our _____ of how to _____ to slander and threats.
1 Peter 2:22-23

The _____ have nothing to _____ from the judgment of God.
Psalm 7:5; 1 Peter 2:21-23

Call upon the Lord to _____ you in His _____.

God is the just Judge and those who seek your _____ will face His _____.
Psalm 7:6; 1 Samuel 26:10

On the Day of Judgment, all _____ will gather around as the Great Judge _____ to take His seat on His throne.

Psalm 7:7; Revelation 11:16–18

The _____ and the _____ will face the Lord on that final day.

The _____ of _____ will be the basis for the believer's standing.

Psalm 7:8, 10; 68:19–20; 2 Peter 1:1

God, who tests hearts and minds, _____ the unrepentant wicked and judges them _____ in His anger.

Psalm 7:9, 11

God cannot be fooled by _____ and _____.

Unless the wicked _____, only certain and terrible _____ awaits them.

Psalm 7:12-13

All the planning, craftiness and creativeness of the _____ who are bent on doing _____ will come back on them in judgment.

Psalm 7:14-16; Isaiah 59:1-8

The godly person can and should _____ in the Lord, for His _____ of the wicked is right and good while His _____ rests on the godly.

Psalm 7:17