

When All Looks Hopeless, Remember to Trust in God.
Psalm 10

Our view of God becomes _____ when the wickedness of the wicked _____ us.

Asking “Why?” is still an expression of _____, but it declares a lack of full _____.

Psalm 10:1

When Jesus, in His humanity, asked the question “Why?” while on the cross, He was expressing His _____ by _____ scripture.

Matthew 27:46; Psalm 22:1

When the wickedness of the wicked looms large in our lives, God can appear _____ and _____ to find.

Psalm 10:1

The oppressed believer is still able to rightly _____ the inner _____ of the wicked.

The wicked are motivated by _____ in their oppression of others, for their own greedy _____.

Psalm 10:2-5

Their heart of pride is visible through their _____ and _____.

Psalm 10:6-11

As the righteous _____ their _____, their view of God becomes clearer.

_____ will become increasingly important to the afflicted.

Psalm 10:12-15

Trust in God's _____
will permeate the prayers of the afflicted.
Psalm 10:12

Trust in God's _____ will permeate the prayers of the afflicted.
Psalm 10:13-14

Trust in God's final and full _____ of the _____, both in this life and the next
will permeate the prayers of the afflicted.
Psalm 10:15

Praise and trust in God's _____ and _____
will be a constant theme of the afflicted.
Psalm 10:16-18

If Jesus Christ is not your _____, then you have a different _____ that you serve.

If Jesus Christ is your _____, do you trust in Him for all of _____, not just eternal life?
