

God's Self-declaration: Forgiving Exodus 34:7

God's forgiveness is rooted and grounded in His _____
_____.

God gave man His _____ in the _____.
Genesis 2:16-17

The _____ and the _____ were woven into this prohibition.

Man _____ to _____ and all mankind
fell in Adam.
Romans 5:12

God's love and mercy are displayed in the covenant of _____ and the covenant of _____.

Only through _____ in Jesus Christ, the perfect law keeper, can _____ of sins occur.
Acts 10:43

Only in Christ will our sins be _____ _____ from us.
Micah 7:18-19

God's _____ love for us must _____ us to love and forgive others.

Seeing the _____ of our sins and God's forgiveness should _____ us.
Psalm 103:1-13

Having received God's _____, we must be merciful and forgiving just as God is merciful and forgiving.
Matthew 6:12; 18:21-22; Colossians 3:12-13

Q. What if I _____ to forgive those who sin against me?

A. You, who claim to be forgiven by God yet remain unforgiving, declare that the sin of others against you is greater than your sin against God, or that your _____ must exact more _____ than the holiness of God.

Isaiah 43:25; Ephesians 4:32

Q. What if I can't _____ the sin committed against me even though I want to forgive?

A. To forget is a _____ act that has no bearing on our ability to forgive. Stop _____ the wrong and rejoice in the forgiveness of God for you which will cause you to think about something other than how you have been wronged.

Jeremiah 31:34

Q. What if the _____ caused by others is too deep?

A. Confess your _____ and _____ as a sin that has been forgiven and rest in God's good plan to create in you the mind of Christ who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising its shame.

Ephesians 4:31–32; Hebrews 12:15

Q. What if I believe that _____ has done me wrong?

A. _____ quickly and turn from this _____. To believe that God does wrong is a grievous sin; this is why grumbling and complaining is so evil. God is good all the time and everything He does is right.

Malachi 1:2-3; Habakkuk 3:17–18