

Love for God Leads to Right Worship
Malachi 1:12-14

It is our duty to _____ and _____ God for who He is.

The Lord is a great King over His _____.

...For I am a great King...

Malachi 1:14 ESV

Malachi 1:2-3

Knowing that our great King is the Lord of Heaven's _____ should cause us to be _____ before Him.

For I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts...

Malachi 1:14 ESV

Daniel 4:34-37

This great King is King over all His elect to the _____ reaches of the _____.

...For I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts,
and my name will be feared among the nations.

Malachi 1:14 ESV

Malachi 1:11; Matthew 4:15-16

_____ louder than words.

Wrong worship is dishonoring to the Lord and reveals a
_____.

Malachi 1:12; Malachi 1:7

Giving God _____ speaks volumes about a hardened heart.

Malachi 1:13

God is not in need of _____ or _____, but these are His ways of revealing the hearts of those who say they worship Him.

Malachi 1:13; 1 Samuel 15:22–23

A _____ heart that declares a _____ for God will not be blessed by the great King.

Malachi 1:14

How do we apply this passage today?

Jesus Christ offered Himself to God as the _____ _____ to redeem lost sinners.

1 Peter 1:18–19; Hebrews 9:13–14

We must remember that _____ the Word preached accurately and with conviction is better than anything we can give: this is one of the means of grace that God has established for His people.

Ecclesiastes 5:1

We must remember that those who have saving faith in Jesus Christ are a _____ of _____.

1 Peter 2:5

As people chosen by God to salvation, we must continually _____ the flesh and _____ to its passions and pleasures.

Romans 12:1

True believers seek to _____, loving and serving others, rather than seeking to be served.

Ephesians 5:1–2

_____ to the ministry is a sweet smelling sacrifice, pleasing to God.

Philippians 4:18