

True Christians Must Live by the Grace of God
1 Peter 5:10-11

The grace of God gives meaning and _____ to suffering Christians.

Suffering is a common reality for all Christians, no matter _____ or _____ they live.

God's grace and strength help us as we walk through our suffering toward the _____ on the other side.

It is only God's grace that provides the right foundation for our life now and forevermore: you are never _____.

Grace excludes any merit due to human effort; being fully _____ in God's sovereign choice.

1 Peter 5:10    1 Peter 1:3    1 Peter 2:9

God's grace secures the Christian for His eternal glory, which far surpasses any _____ which the believer will face on earth.

1 Peter 5:10    1 Peter 1:10–11      1 Peter 4:13

God's grace for salvation and _____, is based upon Christ and His finished work.

Every true Christian will be in the _____ of God for eternity.

Until then, Christians must endure suffering in this life for the _____ of God.

1 Peter 5:9    1 Peter 5:10

God's eternal glory for the true Christians, is both now and forevermore: it is an already/not yet _____.

1 Peter 5:10

The words Peter uses are meant to convey one over-arching truth: God will do what He has promised.

God Himself will _____

God Himself will confirm

God Himself will _____

God Himself will establish you

Our ability to persevere and overcome the suffering caused by the world's hatred of Christ is a _____ from God.
