

Jesus is More Than You Perceive Him to Be
John 12:12-19

It is vital for Christians to strive to understand the context of the events of the Triumphal Entry.

When Jesus rode into Jerusalem on the colt of a donkey, it was not an impromptu event, but a fulfillment of

_____.
John 12:14–15 Zechariah 9:9 Matt 21:1–2

Jesus Christ rode into Jerusalem on the foal of a donkey, in order to display His _____; a humility which led Him to the cross not to an earthly _____.

Philippians 2:8

Jesus came into Jerusalem of His own accord, in order to freely and voluntarily offer Himself as the sin _____.

John 10:17–18

God works in the hearts of people to accomplish His purpose.

God stirred up the crowd to worship Jesus as king, so that Scripture would be _____.

John 12:12–13 John 12:17-18

God kept the hearts of Christ's disciples _____ until the appropriate time to reveal His work to them.

Even though the disciples saw and experienced the Triumphal entry, they were not able to perceive all that was being done until after Christ was

_____.
John 12:16 John 13:6–7

Three things God uses to cause people to perceive and understand Christ and life correctly.

1. You must be born again: only then will you have the Holy Spirit to _____ the Word to your minds.

John 16:13–14 1 Cor. 2:14

2. Believers must be taught the Word of God through biblical preaching, sacraments, and prayer (the _____ means of grace).

Col 2:6–7 Eph 4:20–21

3. Think about Christ first and then how to _____ Him.

1 Cor 2:15–16

God stirred up Caiaphas the high priest and the Pharisees with their _____ of Jesus, so as to prophesy and act, that Scripture would be fulfilled.

John 12:10–11 John 12:19 John 11:47–48

Right worship must flow from a heart that seeks to elevate Christ as revealed in Scripture, while bringing the heart of the worshiper into a state of _____ before the Creator.

Psalms 51:15–17 Ephesians 4:1–3

Christ came, not to be hailed as the One who would overthrow Rome, but to be elevated by the Father as the one who conquered the devil and provide the cure for the _____ of sin.

Colossians 2:11-15

Christ the King desires that His Church pray for His Kingdom to flourish and _____ until His return.

Matthew 6:10