

True Christians Bear the Fruit of Their Calling
2 Peter 1:10-11

Christians must be mindful of the _____ of their salvation and sanctification.

There is one saving faith given _____ Christ alone.
2 Peter 1:1

This one faith is by virtue of God's divine _____ alone.
2 Peter 1:3

Saving faith will lead to sanctification through _____ alone.
2 Peter 1:4

By virtue of the work of Christ in our salvation and sanctification, Christians are strengthened in their Christian _____.
2 Peter 1:5-8

There may be times when sin and sloth lead the Christian to _____.
2 Peter 1:9

While Christians may have times of forgetfulness and failure, they _____ and press on.

In light of the divine power of God in the believer and since we are in the family of God, let us press on for _____ in faith and love.
2 Peter 1:10 Ephesians 4:1-3

Faith in Christ, empowered by God, energizes the Christian to be _____ to do that which builds up the church of God.

2 Peter 1:10 Philippians 2:12–13 1 Cor. 14:12

Faith, displayed by the increasing qualities of the divine nature, confirms the reality of the calling and _____ of God for our salvation.

2 Peter 1:3-4 2 Peter 1:10

Faith, lived out through love for God and others, keeps believers from lacking a seed of _____.

2 Peter 1:10

Faith in Christ assures the believer of their eternal _____ in the Kingdom of God.

Entrance into this kingdom is not earned by us, but is provided for us by the riches of God's _____ and mercy.

2 Peter 1:11

The kingdom of God is an eternal kingdom with its roots in eternity past in the covenant of _____ and accomplished through Christ in the covenant of grace.

Because of the finished work of Jesus Christ, believers are provided entrance into His _____ kingdom.

2 Peter 1:11

The gift of God's grace to those who have faith in Christ empowers believers to live and _____ to the glory of God.

John 13:34–35