

The Gospel is for the Saint and the Sinner
2 Peter 1:12-15

Ephesians 2:19-22 Revelation 21:14

Being reminded again and again of the gospel is _____ for every true believer.

Gospel: the good news of salvation for undeserving sinners through the _____ and _____ of Christ.

It is vital that the gospel is _____, even though the audience already knows it.

2 Peter 1:12 Romans 15:14–15

The gospel shores up the foundation of faith and keeps the believer from _____ and sloth.

2 Peter 1:12 2 Peter 1:9 1 Cor. 15:1–2

The responsibility of every _____ minister is to continually preach the gospel.

God calls ministers to be faithful, not _____.

2 Peter 1:13 1 Cor. 1:17

The goal of preaching is to stir up people with the reminders of gospel _____.

2 Peter 1:13

The unsaved are stirred up to conviction sin for
_____.

2 Timothy 3:14-15

The saved are stirred up to _____.

2 Peter 3:1-2, 11 1 Peter 5:10–11

A minister's time to serve Christ is a vapor: faithfully preaching the gospel is of _____ importance.

Peter was told about his _____.

Jesus told him how and _____ he would die.

John 21:18–19

Peter recognizes that the time of his death is _____; just as Jesus had told him.

2 Peter 1:14

The greatest legacy a pastor can leave is one that faithfully _____ people to Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:14 ESV

Putting off of my body: put off my tabernacle/tent: my _____ dwelling place.

2 Corinthians 5:1-5

A church must be built on Christ the true foundation, not upon the _____ of the pastor.

2 Peter 1:14

1 Corinthians 3:10–11

This is Peter's final testament concerning what he would have for those pastors who follow: A faithful minister will strive to make the _____ of Christ known.

Pastors must be willing examples of the faithfulness that is expected of every _____.

2 Peter 1:15

2 Peter 1:10

2 Peter 1:5

2 Peter 3:13–14

The goal of faithful preaching is to make Christ known, so that He is in the hearts and minds of the people, no matter what they're _____.

2 Peter 1:15

Colossians 1:27–28