

Christ Alone Saves, not Human Ability
John 5:1-17

The _____ condition is seen in this account.

Humanity is sick and paralyzed by sin, both in _____
and in _____.

John 5:2–3; Romans 3:10-18

This particular man had no hope for _____ except for a miracle.

John 5:5, 7

The initiative for our salvation always begins with _____.

Jesus saw him lying there and went to him while _____ all the others in the crowd.

John 5:6

Jesus knew his _____ intimately - had already been there a long time.

John 5:6; Romans 9:15–16

The failure of human _____ – not just his body but his _____ was paralyzed.

I have no one – I’m _____

John 5:6–7; Psalm 142:4

Others go down before me – I’m unable to meet the _____ for healing.

John 5:7; Psalm 109:22–25; Romans 3:23

The man was the object of Christ’s _____: “Get up, take up your bed, and walk.”

Christ asserted power upon the man _____ to the man _____ it of Him.

John 5:8-9; John 3:3, 7-8; John 5:21

Christ affected the man's _____.

John 5:9; 2 Corinthians 5:17; Titus 3:5

Then he affected the man's _____ to obey.

John 5:9; 1 John 5:2-3

Contrary to the Jewish law, the man made whole was walking and carrying his bed in _____ to the One who had healed him.

John 5:9, 11

Those, whom Christ saves and sets on a new path, are _____ of their _____ and of the pain and penalty of their former sins.

As a person made new in Christ, it is vital to remember the great blessing of _____.

John 5:14

_____ can lead redeemed people back into the sinful habits they were delivered from.

John 5:14; Romans 8:14-15

The pain of our sins which God used to draw us to Himself will pale in comparison to the pain of _____ which God may bring upon those whom He loves.

John 5:14; John 15:6; Hebrews 12:4-11
