

Jesus Christ Alone Gives Life
John 11:38-44

The merciful compassion of God is seen in Jesus' _____.

Jesus wept for two obvious reasons.

John 11:35

1. Jesus wept over the effects of _____ on the lives of His creation.
2. Jesus wept over the _____ of those around him.

Jesus' _____ at sin, death, and unbelief, moved Him to action.

John 11:38-39

The gift of life, especially eternal life, is for the _____ of God alone, as revealed in Christ.

The public prayer of Jesus is meant to point the mourners to His _____ with the Father who always hears His prayers.

John 11:41-42

The glory of God is _____ to those who have faith in Christ.

John 11:39-40

The _____ of Lazarus points people to the glory of God who sent His Son to give life to dead souls.

John 11:41-42; John 11:4

Like Lazarus, mankind is _____ in spiritual death and darkness.

There is no _____ or _____ for those who are dead in sin.

John 11:38; Genesis 3:24

The whole life of sinful man is in _____ to sin: Total

_____

John 11:39; Romans 3:13; Psalm 5:9

Only a sovereign act of _____ can give life to one who has died.

The flesh is not only weak; it is _____ of giving itself life.

John 11:39

A means of grace was used as the _____ to something greater.

John 11:39

Though men rolled the stone away, they were _____ to give life to a dead man.

John 6:63

The work of _____ is used by God to clear the path for the entrance of the Word.

Romans 10:14-17; Hebrews 4:12

The call of Lazarus from the cave was an act of _____.

It was a _____ call to Lazarus alone, passing over all other corpses.

John 11:43

It was an _____ call which would accomplish its intended purpose.

John 11:43, 44; John 10:16, 27

In the new birth, sinners are freed from the _____ that has held them _____ in darkness.

John 11:44

Hands are free to _____ others and _____ God; free from anger.

1 Timothy 2:8; Psalm 119:48

Feet are unbound to _____ in _____ of life.

Romans 6:4

Faces once covered with _____, are uncovered to _____ the glory of God.

Psalm 34:4-5

The new birth from spiritual death to life is the beginning of the _____ of the resurrection to eternal life with God.

Without a _____ in this life, there can be no eternal life in the next.

John 11:25-27; John 5:25

Just as Jesus raised the _____ body of Lazarus, so too our _____ bodies will be raised on the last day.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
