

Jesus is the True Word
John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:11-16 (v. 13)

_____ is the only New Testament writer to refer to Jesus as “the Word.”

Jesus is the communication and revelation of the _____.

Unlike us, Jesus is _____.

John 1:1–2

Jesus existed _____ with the Father before anything was created: therefore, the Word is

_____.

John 17:5

Jesus is the _____ through Whom all things were created.

John 1:3

God the Father created all things _____ the Word.

John 1:10; Colossians 1:16

_____ could have created in any way which He chose; He decided it would be through the _____.

Creation is much more than the end result: God broke the _____ of eternity and created _____ which was used to create words.

Genesis 1:1

God’s creative act was through the means of the _____.

God _____ through the Word –

“And God said...” (v. 3, 6, 9, 11, 14, 20, 24, 26) – this is the _____ which resulted in bringing things into existence.

God made _____ through the Word –

“And God called the...” (v. 5, 8, 10)

_____ (the writer of Genesis) tells us God’s

_____ through words –

“and God saw...” (v. 4, 10, 11, 18, 21, 25, 31)

“and God blessed them and said...” (v. 22, 28)

The purpose of salvation is the _____ of man so that his words reflect and honor the Father through Christ.

Jesus Christ is the Word and as such, He _____ and _____ the Father.

John 12:49–50

The Word is shown to be alive when the Lord spoke to the _____ of the Old Testament period.

Isaiah 38:4; Jeremiah 1:4–5

The Word of God is also shown to be alive in the New Testament, as the Lord works in _____ and _____: the Word is Christ.

Hebrews 4:12–13; Romans 10:17; Colossians 3:16

The Word is the _____ of God to His Creation.

Psalms 19:1–4

The eternal, powerful Word of God became _____: intimate and personally connected with His creation.

John 1:14; 1 John 1:1–2

Since a man failed and brought _____ upon his posterity, a man must _____ God's law perfectly in order to satisfy and provide grace and life for those who are under the penalty of sin.

Romans 5:17; John 1:16–17

Only through _____ in the Living Word can one be made right with God: _____ and made true children of the Father.

John 1:12–13

A _____ to believe and trust in the Word of God will result in eternal _____ by the Living Word.

Revelation 19:11–16

A _____ to and _____ in Christ (the Word of God), will bring the blessing of eternal life; being joined to the family of God.

John 1:12–13
