

Jesus is the Chief Shepherd
1 Peter 5:1-4

The principle of the leaders being shepherds of the people finds its roots in the _____.

King _____ was chosen as a shepherd of the people.
Psalm 78:70–72

Eventually, the _____ shepherds of _____ forsook their responsibility and cared only for themselves.
Jeremiah 2:8

The shepherds of Israel were so _____ that God had to severely judge them and _____ shepherd His people.
Ezekiel 34:11–12

God Himself will shepherd His people by sending a _____ to be a truly righteous shepherd to His people.
Ezekiel 34:15–16, 23–24

_____ is the Chief Shepherd and is a truly _____ shepherd of His people.

Jesus _____ Himself with the wicked shepherds of Israel, including the religious leaders of His day.
Matthew 23:15; John 10:7–8, 11

Jesus _____ for His sheep and _____ them all into one flock through His sacrificial death for them.
John 10:14–17; Ezekiel 34:11–12

It was _____ who was taken aside by the resurrected Christ and told _____ times to feed the Lord's flock.

Christ, the Chief Shepherd, _____ Peter to act on His behalf in caring for His sheep.

John 21:15-17

God _____ long ago that He would _____ godly shepherds to care for His flock.

Jeremiah 3:15; 23:3-4

Peter recognized that the flock did not belong to him, but to Christ, and commissioned _____ to serve as _____ for the Lord.

1 Peter 5:1-2

Christ, the Chief Shepherd will _____ and demand an _____ from His undershepherds.

Faithful undershepherds will receive a _____ that never fades, which _____ them even during persecution and harsh treatment.

1 Peter 5:4

Faithful undershepherds are to _____ the flock, _____ the flock, and _____ the flock which belongs to God.

1 Peter 5:2-3; Acts 20:28-30; Jude 20-23

Faithful undershepherds are _____ to the Word of God which the Spirit uses to _____ the sheep into the fold of God through faith in the Christ the Chief Shepherd.

John 10:2-5

_____ who masquerade as _____ will receive harsh judgment for causing damage to the flock of God.

John 10:12-13; Jude v. 12-16