

Jesus is the Cornerstone
1 Peter 2:4-8

The apostle Peter was teaching Christians about the _____ and _____ of being in Christ.

It is the _____ of Christians to come to Jesus by faith on a _____ basis.

1 Peter 2:4

Christianity is not _____, but Christians grow when they join with others to _____ and serve God.

1 Peter 2:5; Ephesians 2:18-22

Jesus is the cornerstone whether you _____ Him or _____ Him.

Peter declares not _____, but _____ as the cornerstone upon which the church is built.

1 Peter 2:4-5; Acts 4:11

It is God who declared Jesus to be the _____ and _____ cornerstone.

1 Peter 2:4, 6

The _____ each record Jesus declaring that He is the cornerstone.

Mark 12:10-11

As the cornerstone, Jesus is the _____ of Old Testament prophecy.

Psalm 118:22-23; Isaiah 28:16

There are two _____ who are choosing two different _____ for their building projects.

Those who reject Christ, build on a _____ - _____ cornerstone.

1 Peter 2:4, 7

_____ is building a _____ on Christ, His chosen and precious cornerstone.

1 Peter 2:4, 6

The building which God builds will _____ and _____ His purpose.

Those who are in Christ, are _____ which form the house.

1 Peter 2:5

As living stones, whose foundation is Christ, God gives believers _____.

Believers are a holy _____.

1 Peter 2:5, 9

Believers offer spiritual _____ which are acceptable to God through Christ.

1 Peter 2:5; Romans 12:1

Because believers are _____ through Christ, they now have the special privilege of being _____ by God.

1 Peter 2:6–7; Romans 9:33; 10:11

There is a completely different _____ for those who choose to build on any foundation other than Christ alone.

Even by building on another foundation, _____ the cornerstone.

1 Peter 2:7

Christ, the chosen and precious cornerstone, _____ all other building efforts.

1 Peter 2:8

The only result possible for building on a foundation other than Christ is to _____ into _____.

1 Peter 2:8; 2 Thessalonians 1:9–10

Matthew 21:44