

Faith, Prayer, and the Return of Christ
Luke 17:20-18:8

Don't be led astray by the _____ of the enemy.

The kingdom of God is not _____.

Luke 17:20

The kingdom of God is _____.

Luke 17:21

Don't fret about the return of Christ by chasing _____ and other craziness.

Luke 17:22-23

Christ will return and _____ will _____ it.

Luke 17:24

Prior to His return, He had to _____ and be _____ by men.

Luke 17:25

Judgment will come when things look very _____ in the world.

The following passages are not primarily about the
_____ of the world, but about the _____ functioning of the world when judgment comes.

_____ prepared for the _____ by building
the ark while everyone else just went on with life.

Luke 17:26-27

When _____ was rescued from
_____, everyone else was just going on with their lives.

Luke 17:28-30

Judgment will come on unbelievers when they least _____ it; and it will be _____.

Luke 17:30

When Christ _____ it will be _____ to all just as the circling of vultures identifies the location of a dead body.

Just as with _____, so there will be families and acquaintances who will not escape the judgment with the righteous because they turned away from the faith.

Luke 17:31-32

Only those who _____ on in the _____ will escape the judgment.

Luke 17:33

The events described by Jesus refer to _____ judgment.

Luke 17:34-35

The _____ could signify those who are _____ dead.

Luke 17:37

In light of the return of Christ and the _____ of the _____, don't give up and turn away from the faith.

When you're _____ or tempted to _____, remember to _____.

Luke 18:1; 21:34-36

The issue that Jesus is addressing has to do with getting _____ for _____ done against you as a Christian.

The _____ of the judge.

Luke 18:2, 4, 6

The woman had an _____, so she was seeking _____ from the one who could give her justice.

Luke 18:2-5

If an unrighteous judge can render a right judgment, then Jesus is showing that God is _____ in his rendering of justice.

God has chosen His _____ and poured His _____ upon them, so He will give them _____ when they call.

Luke 18:7

God will give justice to His elect when they call and will do it _____, but we must be careful how we _____ speedily.

Luke 18:8

No matter how long it takes for justice to come from God, it will come and it will be _____ so don't lose _____, but _____.

Luke 18:8

Remember that God is accomplishing His purpose in _____ people.

2 Peter 3:1-13