

Serve Christ, not Popular Opinion
Galatians 2:1-10

In our text, we see three groups of people, each having a role in Paul's _____ and _____.

The first group is Barnabas and Titus who _____ Paul to Jerusalem.
Galatians 2:1; Matthew 18:16

The second group is those whom Paul called "_____"
Galatians 2:4; Jude 4; Galatians 1:9

The third group is those who were more _____ Christians: James, Cephas, and John.

They are identified as those who seemed to be _____ (v. 2, 6).

They are also identified as those who seemed to be "_____" of the church (v. 9).

There are several key issues going on at once.

Paul assumed an _____ with the James, Cephas, and John.

Paul called the meeting with these three and was not viewing them as his _____.
Galatians 2:2, 6

Paul is confident in God's commissioning of him as an _____ to the Gentiles.

Paul brought Titus along as a _____, to see if his presentation of the gospel to the Gentiles would be _____.
Galatians 2:2

Paul intentionally brought an uncircumcised Gentile with him to create a situation that would force the three to decide between _____ and _____ in Christ (law and gospel).
Galatians 2:3

Paul was affirmed by the three as a minister of the gospel to the _____.
Galatians 2:7

Peter was affirmed as a minister of the gospel to the _____.
Galatians 2:7

The false brothers would be _____ by the agreement of the three, that Paul was in fact an _____ to the Gentiles.
Galatians 2:8

Peter, James, and John recognized God's _____ in Paul's ministry.
Galatians 2:9

The three publicly recognized Paul as an _____ in ministry with them.
Galatians 2:9

The three _____ and _____ Paul as a minister of the gospel to the Gentiles.
Galatians 2:9

One of the works of a Christian ministry is that of _____ those in _____.
Galatians 2:10