

God's Law Reveals Humanity's Sinfulness
Galatians 3:19-22

1. The law is a _____ or a _____ who shows us our sin and our desperate condition, driving us to Christ.
2. The law is a _____ that keeps society from spiraling out of control through civil government.
3. The law is a _____ for the believer and teaches us how to live to the glory of God.

Paul begins by asking the question, "Why then the law?"

He identifies the first use of the law; it is a _____, giving us the knowledge of our sin.

Galatians 3:19; Romans 3:20

The law should bring us to the _____ of ourselves.

The law _____ save sinners.

Galatians 3:21

Instead of life, the law only leads sinners into more _____ to sin.

Galatians 3:22

When people or churches seek to give laws that supposedly lead to righteousness, they are actually promoting an _____ - _____ message.

This is the reason Paul was so _____ on the _____ teachers.

Galatians 1:6-9

Law and gospel cannot be _____ since one leads to death and the other leads to life.

Galatians 2:16; Romans 4:15

Paul is seeking to make the gospel of grace _____ to the _____ Galatians.

The mercy of God is seen in the _____ of the law pointing sinners to coming One to whom the _____ had been made.

Galatians 3:19; Galatians 3:16

The law, given to _____, was given by the One Mediator, Jesus Christ who would come to _____ the law.

Galatians 3:19–20; Acts 7:38

Paul points the Galatians to the _____ of the law.

The law of Moses does not _____ grace but _____ in bringing people to Christ through the knowledge of sin.

Galatians 3:21; Romans 7:7

If the law had the power to save, _____ would no longer be of God's free grace but of man's ability.

Galatians 3:21

The first use of the law is to take sinners _____ to their sin, leading to _____.

The heart of sinners _____ against the mirror of the Word of God and is instead _____ under the weight of their sins.

Galatians 3:22; Romans 7:11–12

The more sinners try to _____ the law as a means of righteousness, the more desperate their condition becomes.

Galatians 3:10

The only hope for sinners is to _____ in Christ and _____ the promised Holy Spirit.

Galatians 3:22; Galatians 3:14