Sermon quotes:

“Baptism is a sign of fellowship with Christ, in His death and resurrection; and of our being grafted into Him...”-LBC 29:1

“Baptism is a covenantal transaction or ceremony between God and the individual... While baptism does not save, it does formalize salvation in a covenantal ceremony or transaction between God and the party baptized. It is the body of which faith is the soul. We dare not adopt, therefore, the idea that it is unimportant.”-Samuel Waldron, “A Modern Exposition of the 1689 Baptist Confession of Faith” page, 345-346

“Of course not every baptized person has true faith in Christ, but for Paul, as a general matter, the people of faith are those who have been set apart by baptism, and the community of the baptized is the church.”-David VanDrunen, “Living in God’s Two Kingdoms” page, 104
