Sermon quotes:

“The One thing and one thing alone leads to Christian life, righteousness, and freedom. This is the holy Word of God, the gospel of Christ...the soul needs only one thing: the word of God...there is no greater mercy than when God sends His word.”- Luther

“The Scripture sets before us a man who is not only bound, wretched, captive, sick and dead, but who, through the operation of Satan his lord, adds to his other miseries that of blindness, so that he believes himself to be free, happy, possessed of liberty and ability, whole and alive. Satan knows that if men knew their own misery he could keep no man in his kingdom.”- Luther

“The Catholic Church had in judgment too low an opinion of the majesty and holiness of God and too high an estimate of the worth and potentiality of man.”- Roland Bainton

“A man cannot be thoroughly humbled till he realizes that his salvation is utterly beyond his own powers, counsels, efforts, will and works, and depends absolutely on the will, counsel, pleasure and work of another-God alone...Christians, however, are made to act, not by ‘free-will’ but by the Spirit of God.”- Luther

“God’s intent is clear. He wants us to humble ourselves and find comfort in His mercy and grace.”- Luther
