

Sound Doctrine Promotes Faith and Unity
1 Timothy 1:3-7

Those who teach or practice error must be _____.
Pastoral correction for those who teach doctrinal error is not _____.

1 Timothy 1:3; Titus 2:15

Doctrinal error in teaching must be corrected or it will lead to the pursuit of more and more _____.

1 Timothy 1:4; Titus 1:13-14

Those who teach must order themselves according to _____ through faith.

1 Timothy 1:4; Titus 1:7; Colossians 1:24-25

The purpose for this command to correct those who teach and practice error is to promote God's _____ in the _____.

When a false gospel is taught it creates _____ rather than mutual _____.

1 Timothy 1:5; Titus 1:10-11; 3:9-11

Christ's love flows from sound doctrine which _____ redeemed sinners and _____ them to willingly love God and others.

1 Timothy 1:5; Colossians 3:12-17

Emphasizing _____ rather than _____ as a means of spiritual growth will lead to disaster.

Teaching _____ as a means of righteousness brings _____ in three ways.

1 Timothy 1:6

- It corrupts the _____.
- It corrupts the _____.
- It corrupts _____ alone, in _____ alone, since it cannot teach _____ alone.

1 Timothy 6:20–21

When the gospel is forsaken and law is taught as a means of _____, it proves that it is _____ talk.

1 Timothy 1:6; 6:3-5

Confidently teaching law as a means of righteousness is

_____.

Being teachers brings _____: being teachers of the law brings greater _____.

1 Timothy 1:7; James 3:1-2; Galatians 1:6-9

Teaching law as a means of righteousness shows that the teacher doesn't understand man's _____ or God's amazing _____.

1 Timothy 1:7; 2 Timothy 4:1-4

Confidently using the law as a means of righteousness (and _____) shows that the teacher doesn't understand the _____ of the law.

1 Timothy 1:7

1. The law is a _____ which reveals God's righteous standard us, _____ us under its weight. This is meant to drive us to Christ as the only remedy for our sin.
2. The law is a _____ to keep the world of sinners in check so that they cannot be as bad as they could be or as they want to be.
3. The law is a _____ _____ for those who have trusted in Christ, the One who fulfilled the law on our behalf. It teaches us God's will which is motivated by love for God and love for our neighbor, as we live by faith for God's glory.

John 14:15