

Jesus Christ is the True Gate of Heaven
Psalm 118:19-29

The triumphal entry has its roots in Old Testament

_____.

The psalmist saw the _____ of the temple as guarding _____.

Psalm 118:19

The gates must be _____ by _____, or none can enter.

Psalm 118:19

Jesus Christ is the only way to _____ to the
_____ of God.

Psalm 118:20; John 14:6; John 10:7, 9

Entering through the gate of righteousness brings _____ to our hearts.

Psalm 118:21

The triumphal entry of Jesus was a _____ day and yet it was a _____ day for Israel.

The religious leaders should have built on the
_____ but they _____ Christ and it cost them dearly.

Psalm 118:22; Matthew 21:42-46; 24:2

Jesus Christ, the Righteous One, _____ the temple and it was _____ to behold.

Psalm 118:23; Haggai 2:9; Malachi 3:1

_____ is now building a better _____ and is the foundation and cornerstone upon which it is being built.

_____ is a mark of the Christian.

Psalm 118:24

1. We are _____ through the gate of righteousness: we are _____ from our sins.

Romans 14:17

2. We are being built into a _____ temple: we are part of Christ's _____.

1 Corinthians 3:11, 17

3. We now worship together in _____ without any division.

1 Corinthians 12:24–25

The prayer of the righteous is both _____ and _____.

Psalm 118:25

1. We _____ to God for our salvation in Christ our Lord.

Mark 11:9–10

2. We pray for the _____ of Christ's Church both _____ and abroad.

Ephesians 4:11–12; Acts 16:5

3. In _____ of spirit, we sing praises to our _____ King.

Psalm 118:26; Matthew 23:38–39

Because God has _____ us with His own dear Son, we should want to _____ Him our best.

Psalm 118:27; Ephesians 5:2; Romans 12:1

The redeemed sing praises to God for the _____ of His Son _____ us from all unrighteousness and keeps us _____ in His love.

Psalm 118:28–29; Hebrews 10:19–25