

True Wealth is Found in Knowing God
1 Timothy 6:17-21

Paul closes his letter to Timothy by addressing those who are _____.

Some who were rich were _____ their wealth to their own _____.

They had become _____ and needed to be _____.

1 Timothy 6:17; 1 Timothy 1:3

They made their _____ their source of _____.

1 Timothy 6:17

They had not acknowledged God as the source of _____ and _____.

1 Timothy 6:17

The rich are called to use their wealth for _____.

Wealth is _____ and can _____ overnight.

1 Timothy 6:17; Proverbs 23:4-5

The rich are to _____ in the Kingdom of God by being rich in _____.

1 Timothy 6:18

The rich will benefit in two primary ways when they put _____ and _____ before their wealth.

By being generous, the rich develop _____ that _____ them throughout their earthly lives.

1 Timothy 6:19

By being generous with their wealth, the rich gain confidence that they are _____ and _____ by faith in Christ and not by their wealth.

1 Timothy 6:19; 1 Timothy 6:12

Paul closed his letter to Timothy by continuing with the _____.

Timothy and all believers are a repository into which the gift of _____ (the totality of the gospel) has been deposited by God's Spirit.

1 Timothy 6:20; Luke 19:20-23

The priceless gift of biblical doctrine must be guarded since it is the message of _____.

1 Timothy 6:20; 2 Timothy 1:13-14

This priceless gift of sound doctrine is to be guarded carefully so that no one _____ it for a _____.

1 Timothy 6:20; 2 John 10-11

Only by standing _____ over sound biblical doctrine and _____ carefully can the Christian stay on the path of true faith.

1 Timothy 6:21

Paul's reference to "_____" brings the message of 1 Timothy full circle.

1:3-4, 6-7, 19-20

Psalm 19:7-11