

The Resurrection of Christ Changes Everything
2 Timothy 2:8-9

The _____ of all gospel preaching is Jesus Christ.

There is no _____ without Jesus Christ who _____ great suffering for sinners.

2 Timothy 2:8; 1 Timothy 6:3-4

The _____ of Christ is the _____ of every suffering believer.

2 Timothy 2:3; 1 Peter 2:21

Gospel preaching follows the _____ of the apostle Paul and all the _____.

2 Timothy 2:8; Acts 2:42; Galatians 1:8

Gospel preaching presents Jesus as a _____
_____ being who truly suffered in the flesh.

2 Timothy 2:8; Romans 1:1-3; Galatians 4:4
Hebrews 5:7

Gospel preaching presents Jesus as the _____ of _____ through His bodily resurrection from the dead.

2 Timothy 2:8; Hebrews 2:9; Romans 1:4

The life, death, and bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ is the _____ of Scripture and the only _____ for sinners.

Luke 24:25-27, 44-47

Though gospel preaching promises _____ hope, it is often rejected as though it were eternally _____.

Paul _____ for his _____ in the resurrection of the dead.

2 Timothy 2:9; Acts 24:20–21

Following Christ's example, those who preach Christ's resurrection are often _____ (_____) by those who reject Christ.

2 Timothy 2:9; John 18:12-14, 19-24

Though the lost seek to _____ the gospel message, by God's grace it accomplishes even more through the _____ of others.

2 Timothy 2:9; Philippians 1:12–13; Acts 8:3–4
