If the one to whom we pray is not on the throne, then we have no real hope that he can do what we ask him to do...Jesus is telling us that there is a throne—all around us—and someone is sitting on it. We can therefore, dare to hope that when we pray something happens.

Darrell Johnson, Fifty-seven Words that Change the World, (Vancouver: Canadian Church Leaders Network, 2021), 18

The words "Our Father" indicate God's willingness and eagerness to lend his ear to the praises and petitions of his children, the addition "who art in heaven" shows his power and sovereign right to answer their requests, disposing of them according to his infinite wisdom.
