

God Revealed His Love When He Gave His Son
John 3:16

God's love is the _____ of our salvation.

God _____ salvation because of His great love.
John 3:16; Ephesians 2:4

God's love flowed from His _____ rather than being _____ by man's need.
John 3:16; 1 John 4:10

God loved the _____, but the world loved
_____.
John 3:19

The _____ is the demonstration of God's _____.

The giving of the Son was the _____ of the Father's love, not the _____ of it.
John 3:16; 1 John 4:19

The giving of God's Son demonstrates the _____ of the Father's _____ for sinners.
John 3:16; 1 John 4:10

God's _____ creation is the _____ of His love.

The _____ of God's love is for all the world to see.
John 3:16; 6:35

The death of Christ is _____ to take away the sins of the _____ world.
John 3:16; John 1:29

God's desire is to _____ from eternal punishment.

The _____ of the Son out of love for the world should alone be enough to move sinners to _____, but it isn't.

John 3:16

The _____ of Christ's sacrifice for sins does not lessen the _____ of God's love for sinners.

1 John 4:10; Romans 5:8; 2 Peter 3:9

God's great joy is to give _____ to all who believe in His Son for salvation.

The _____ of God goes out to all, but only those who have _____ in Christ alone will be given eternal life.

John 3:16; Ephesians 2:8–9

Eternal life is God's _____ to all who _____ in Christ who died to atone for sins.

John 5:24; 10:28–29