

Love is the Fulfillment of the Law
1 Thessalonians 4:9-12

The greatest evidence of _____ is a sincere _____ for other Christians.

The most _____ to God's love is a love for His children.

1 Thessalonians 4:9; 1 John 3:14

Being loved by God should make loving others in God's family a _____.

1 Thessalonians 4:9

Though believers may have many _____,
God's _____ removes those differences and gives us _____.

Colossians 3:11; Ephesians 2:13-14

Our Triune God has _____ us how to _____ one another.

Love _____: The Father pours out His love
on undeserving sinners.

1 Thessalonians 1:4; 1 John 4:19

Love _____: The Son gave His life for undeserving sinners.

Ephesians 5:2; Matthew 20:27-28

Love _____: The Holy Spirit empowers us through love, to overlook a multitude of offenses.

Galatians 5:22; 1 John 3:23-24

Because of our Triune God, believers must not give up _____ one another but _____ more and more.

1 Thessalonians 4:10; 1 Thessalonians 4:1

Philippians 1:9

Paul gives three _____ for Christians which will _____ their love in two specific ways (all in the infinitive).

First, learn to live _____; not being _____ with the cares of the world.

1 Thessalonians 4:11

Second, live _____ and don't get involved in gossip, slander, or put-downs.

1 Thessalonians 4:11; 2 Thessalonians 3:11

Third, be a _____ member of society who can _____ to the community of believers.

1 Thessalonians 4:11; 1 Thessalonians 2:9; 5:14
2 Thessalonians 3:11–12

The first positive result (in the present active) is that _____ will not have anything bad to say against the _____.

1 Thessalonians 4:12; Matthew 5:13-16

The second positive result (in the present active) is that Christians learn to be _____ givers and not _____ takers.

1 Thessalonians 4:12; Acts 4:34–35
Galatians 6:10

It should be the _____ of all Christians to _____ what Paul to the church in chapter 1:2-3.

1 Thessalonians 1:2–3