

Christianity is a Reasonable Faith
1 Thessalonians 5:19-22

The Holy Spirit is a very _____ person of the Trinity.

The Holy Spirit _____ of Jesus Christ.
1 John 5:6; John 15:26

The Holy Spirit _____ sinners, giving them new birth.
Titus 3:5; John 3:8

The Holy Spirit _____ spiritual truths to hearts and minds.
1 Corinthians 2:10

The Holy Spirit brings _____ and _____ to hearts and minds.
Galatians 5:22; Romans 14:17

The Holy Spirit brings _____ to Christ's church.
Ephesians 4:3; 1 Corinthians 12:13

The Holy Spirit is _____ and _____ and so is not affected by what we do. So, what does Paul mean here?

The _____ is about the believer's life in the local church.
1 Thessalonians 5:12-22

Do not reject the _____ and _____ of the Holy Spirit.
1 Thessalonians 5:19; Ephesians 4:30

Eagerly _____ to and _____ the preaching and teaching from godly men on the Lord's Day.

1 Thessalonians 5:20

To prophecy does not necessarily mean to _____ the _____ but does mean the proclamation of God's message.

Ezekiel 37:4, 7, 9-10, 12

1 Corinthians 14:1, 3, 19

The one who _____ for God should not be _____.

Instead of _____ the teacher or his teaching, _____ the teaching carefully.

1 Thessalonians 5:20-21; 1 John 4:1

Once the teacher and teaching have been _____, _____ to that which is right and sound.

1 Thessalonians 5:21; Matthew 13:47-48

Having _____ the truth and _____ what is worthless, purpose to live according to what you have come to believe.

1 Thessalonians 5:22; Romans 12:9

The good which we must cling to is found in _____.

In Him is no _____, no matter how hard you look, yet He was _____ by sinners.

Isaiah 53:3

Once the Spirit gives sight to blind eyes, the new believer must _____ upon their Savior.

Hebrews 12:2