Simple thoughts on the principle of Divine Fullness

Is there something lacking in God's love?

Does God keep good things from His children?

Why would a God who made the universe care about our private thoughts?

Why would God punish us for every sin and not just focus on the big ones?

"From His _____ (πλήρωμα-pleroma) we have all received, grace upon grace."-Jn. 1:16

Why a neglected teaching? Gnostic high jacking? Fails to compute?

Why is it important? Connected to all other doctrines-such peace found in this doctrine...and also such dread

Theologically

This concept is tied to the concept of divine _____ (God is His attributes) but He is not simply His attributes but He is them "in full"-there is no _____, there is nothing missing, it is perfect

The Son lacks _____ of that which is "God" (the divine _____)-
Colossians 1:19

_____-The Lord Jesus drank the cup of God's wrath

Practically

_____ was not performed because of a lack but was the overflow of His fullness (a _____ God could not create)

_____ (grace, forgiveness, love, blessing, peace, pardon, etc)

_____ (word, deed, thought, etc)
