

God is Faithful Even When We are Not

Ruth 1

Seeing the _____ background will help us understand the book better.

Elimelech is the husband of Naomi, and they are from _____.

Ruth 1:1–2

This man whose God is _____, lived in the House of _____ and left for Moab because of a famine in Judah.

Ruth 1:1

Moab was a place of _____ and moral filth.

Genesis 19:36–37

Moab is also a place of _____, death, and failure.

Deuteronomy 34:4-6

God has seen fit to record this man's downward spiral from _____ to _____.

Like Elimelech, the _____ we make affect others.

Ruth 1:2

While his name meant “my God is King”, he lived as though God had been _____.

Deuteronomy 8:1-3

Instead of blessing, Elimelech _____ from the blessing of God.

Ruth 1:2–3

His _____ caused his wife and sons to be _____ in a foreign land.

Proverbs 14:12

The _____ of a father and the bad decisions he made led his sons to marry women whom the Lord had _____.

Though the Moabite nation was not listed at the giving of the law, there was still _____ against marrying _____ wives.

Deuteronomy 7:3–4

_____ was led astray by his foreign wives, including Moabite women.

1 Kings 11:1–2, 7

After the death of Elimelech, his _____ also died.

Ruth 1:4–5

The extent of Elimelech's bad decision is that his _____ is left in a foreign land without any _____ relatives to help her or her daughters-in-law.

Ruth 1:5

When God brings us to the point of _____, He also supplies the _____ and strength to make the right decision.

Naomi is a picture of brokenness and _____ for the Christian who has _____ away.

First, she came to the _____ of what must be done: she must _____.

Ruth 1:6

Second, she _____ where the blessing of God _____.

Ruth 1:6

Third, she _____ from the land of _____ to God.

Ruth 1:7

By God's _____, Naomi's two daughters-in-law are also at the point of _____.

Orpah _____ the land of blessing and _____ the land of flesh and idolatry.

Ruth 1:14–15; 1 John 2:15

Ruth is a picture of someone to whom the Spirit of God has given _____.

Ruth was given a _____ faith and could not be _____ out of going with Naomi.

Ruth 1:16

Ruth saw _____ staying for and only wanted to be with God's people.

Ruth 1:16

The _____ of _____ is the place where God's people want to be.

Like Naomi, God may have taken what you deemed most important, but you can trust His _____.

Ruth 1:21

The land of blessing is also the land of _____ and a _____.

Ruth 1:22