

Grace is an Unearned Favor of God
Ruth 2

Though the offer to be with God's people is _____,
most _____ it.

Orpah shows that she _____ God's _____.

Ruth 1:14-15

Ruth exhibits _____ faith by expressing _____ in the Naomi's God.

Ruth 1:16

Hearts of _____ must first be _____ by God for true faith to be expressed.

Ezekiel 36:26

In this chapter, we're introduced to _____, the kinsman-redeemer.

Boaz was a real man who was a _____ close
_____.

Ruth 2:1

Boaz is known to be a _____ of _____.

The true Kinsman-Redeemer would be found in human likeness in order to make _____ possible through His _____ provision.

Ephesians 1:7-8

In faith, Ruth followed Naomi who _____ to Bethlehem from her _____ in Moab.

It is the desire of true Christians to go to the place where _____ is harvested.

Ruth 2:2, 7

What looks like _____ is actually the
_____ of God being revealed to those who live by faith.

Ruth 2:3; Proverbs 16:33

Like Boaz with Ruth, Christ desires that those who are _____ glean from His _____.

Ruth 2:8-9; John 6:35

Like Boaz with Ruth, Christ promises to provide _____ for those who are _____.

Ruth 2:9; John 4:13–14

Ruth was _____ and _____ for the care and protection which Boaz provided for her.

Like Ruth, we must recognize our _____.

Ruth 2:10; Romans 3:23–24

Boaz _____ the saving faith of Ruth and blessed her.

Ruth 2:12; Psalm 91:4

Ruth _____ Boaz by expressing how wonderful His _____ was toward her.

Ruth 2:13; 2 Thessalonians 2:16–17

Boaz reveals God's abundant _____ to those He _____.

Like Boaz, God invites us to _____ for blessing.

Ruth 2:14; Matthew 11:28

By drawing near to God, we will be _____ with good things from His harvest field.

Ruth 2:14; Hebrews 4:16

Like the young men who worked for Boaz, _____ are to provide for God's people from the abundant harvest of His _____.

Ruth 2:15–16; 2 Timothy 4:1–2

Only when we have gleaned the blessing of God will we have something to _____ with those we _____.

Ruth was not _____, but through diligence and submission she had something to _____ with Naomi.

Ruth 2:17–18; 2 Timothy 2:2

The _____ of _____ caused Naomi to ask where she gleaned such abundance.

Ruth 2:19; 1 Peter 3:15

Upon Ruth's _____, Naomi recognized God's _____ leading to Boaz as the kinsman-redeemer.

Ruth 2:20; Acts 4:13

The _____ of the Kinsman-Redeemer should cause those He is gracious toward to stay close to Him.

Ruth 2:21-23