

Rahab: The Unlikely Convert Joshua 2

When we trust the Lord and are obedient, He will _____ our _____.

The two spies were in _____, but God
led them to one who would protect them.
Joshua 2:1

Rahab's soul was in _____, but God showed kindness to her by leading the spies to her home.
Joshua 2:8–9; Romans 2:4

God had a _____ to _____ Rahab even before the two spies came to her house.

The fear of God had fallen upon all in Jericho because they heard of God's _____ against those who opposed Him.
Joshua 2:11

Out of all the people in Jericho, only _____ _____ in the God of Israel.
Joshua 2:12; Ezekiel 36:26

If all of Jericho feared for their lives, why didn't they all _____ to the Lord in _____?
Romans 1:18; John 12:39–40

The promise of salvation from judgment is seen in the _____ cord representing the _____ of the covenant.

Rahab was saved through _____, not by the scarlet cord.
Joshua 2:21

Rahab _____ God and in _____ hung the scarlet cord out her window.

Joshua 2:18, 21

Jesus shed His blood for sinners and gave the cup of the New Covenant in His blood as a _____ to the

_____.

Luke 22:20; Matthew 26:28

Christ's _____ is always _____ to cleanse sinners from all their sins.

While Rahab is always known as a _____ prostitute, God also declares her to be a _____ woman in the line of the Messiah.

Hebrews 11:31; Matthew 1:5

The _____ we gain from our sins may not go away but the _____ of our sins is paid in full for all who believe.

Luke 7:47–48

God reveals two important _____ of Rahab's faith.

Rahab was given a _____ to see that her loved ones all came under the _____ of the God of Israel.

Joshua 2:12–13, 18

Rahab was placed into the _____ of the people of God, no longer to be an _____ or left to wander.

Joshua 6:23, 25

Like Rahab, believers should have a _____ and _____ to bring their loved ones under the protection of God their Savior.

Acts 2:38–39

Like Rahab, every true believer should desire to be a part of the _____ of believers: the _____.

Acts 2:46–47; Galatians 6:10