

Jesus: King of Kings and Lord of Lords
Luke 1:51-55

Mary's song prophetically declares the _____ of God displayed through the child she would bear.

The power of God is displayed in the _____
_____ the Messiah.

Luke 1:51; Luke 1:35

Jesus displayed this power in His _____
_____.

Acts 2:22

The _____ of God through Jesus was _____ what people thought would happen.

Mary references the songs of Moses and David to show God's _____ over His _____.

Luke 1:51; Numbers 10:35; Psalm 68:1

Like the arrogant people of old, God is able to _____ the plans of the _____ even before they complete them.

Genesis 11:4, 7-8

Mary prophesied that the Messiah would change the _____ of those who _____ in Him.

Luke 1:52; Daniel 2:20-21; Romans 13:1

The Messiah, though humble while on earth, will _____ with the _____ of God Almighty.

Philippians 2:8-9

Though _____ by the world, all true believers will _____ with Christ.

Revelation 5:9–10; 2 Timothy 2:11–12

God makes a distinction between those who long for the things of _____ and those who long for _____ things.

The Messiah will put things in their right order, _____ those who truly _____ for Him.

Luke 1:53; Matthew 5:6; 6:33

Those who _____ the Messiah, only to seek for value in earthly things will be sent away _____ empty.

Luke 1:53; 6:24–25; 1 John 2:15

From the beginning of Israel's history, God has revealed His _____ and _____.

Mary is probably singing about God's faithfulness to _____.

Luke 1:54; Exodus 3:7

Mary prophesied about the _____ of God and His mercy them.

Luke 1:55; Romans 9:8, 11

The Messiah to be born would accomplish what no _____ could, the _____ of the enemy of man's soul.

Genesis 3:15; Hebrews 2:14