

Jesus Gives Hope in Our Confusion
John 13:36-38

Jesus is _____ with our spiritual _____.

Peter _____ a statement and didn't _____ to the rest of what Jesus said.
John 13:33, 36

If Peter was _____, he would have asked how he could be more _____ like Jesus.
John 13:34

Jesus once again _____ and _____ responded to Peter's distraction.
John 13:36; John 13:7-10; 2 Peter 3:14-15

Jesus kept pointing Peter to _____.

Until the Lord _____ our _____, we remain unable to understand His statements.
John 13:36; John 7:32-36

The Lord is showing us the need to patiently rest in God's _____ for the moment.
John 13:36; John 13:31; James 1:2-3

Peter's mind is _____ in the moment; he should have been focused on Christ's _____.

_____ : Christ must be _____ in order for the hope of salvation to be accomplished.
John 13:36; John 13:32

Jesus _____ Peter that He would _____
Him in a short time.
John 13:36

Jesus may be foretelling Peter's _____ on a _____.
John 21:18-19

Jesus is certainly referencing the _____ of _____ following His own resurrection and ascension.
John 14:3

Jesus had to show Peter the _____ of his _____
in a most clear and painful way.

Peter impatiently and arrogantly used Jesus' _____
_____ for himself.
John 13:37; John 10:11, 15

Peter needed to be questioned about how he arrogantly saw himself as Jesus' _____ and _____.
John 13:38; John 13:6-8

Peter's _____ - _____ would soon be put to the test and he would fail miserably.
John 13:38; Mark 14:66-72

Even Peter's sin of denying Christ wasn't enough to cause the Savior to _____ him to the _____.

Peter fulfilled Christ's prophecy about him and yet was overcome with _____ when he met the
_____ of his Lord.
Luke 22:61-62

Like Peter, our standing before God is due only to the
_____ and _____ of Christ.
1 Peter 2:24-25