

Jesus Triumphed Over the Devil's Scheme
John 13:31-35

A simple phrase points to a _____: "And it was night."

The dark _____ soul of Judas brought a cloud of _____ into the upper room.

John 6:70-71; 13:2 ESV

John wants his readers to note that there can be no _____ between light and darkness.

John 13:31; 2 Corinthians 6:14

The darkness in Judas was a _____ by the devil to overthrow the light of Christ.

John 1:4-5

True fellowship can only occur when the true _____ drives the _____ away.

John 13:31

The betrayal of Jesus by Judas worked exactly according to the _____ of God.

What looked like a _____ event was actually for the _____ of God.

John 13:31

The Father glorifies the Son as He looks _____ to the _____: the very reason He was born.

John 7:39; 12:27; John 12:23-24

Jesus reveals that His crucifixion, death and resurrection are _____ and _____.

John 13:32

Jesus _____ His disciples for His _____.

The Lord Jesus _____ and affectionately _____ them that He would be departing from them.

John 13:33

Jesus made the same statement to the Jews but without any _____, only _____.

John 8:21

The difference lies in the _____ of the person to the _____.

John 8:23–24

Though Jesus is departing and the disciples _____ Him, they will one day be where He is going.

John 14:3

Jesus gave His followers a _____ to follow.

The followers of Christ are to _____ one another in a new way and not just because it's _____.

John 13:34; Leviticus 19:18

The followers of Christ love other believers because of the _____ of Christ for them.

Though this is _____, the motive for the Christian flows from the _____ of God in Christ for them.

John 13:34; 15:12–13; 1 John 4:10

Jesus stated that love for _____ is primarily expressed in love toward other _____ of Christ.

John 13:34; John 13:15; 1 John 4:11

As believers show love to other _____, this is a _____ to those who don't yet know Christ.

John 13:35