

The Way to Heaven Runs Through Christ
John 14:4-6a

The apostles possessed all the _____ they needed to be able to follow Jesus.

Jesus was very clear that the way had already been _____ for the disciples.

John 14:4

Like Thomas, we tend to think more about the _____ than the _____ to the destination.

John 14:5

The disciples had a _____ and _____ word from Jesus about how He was going to the Father.

Luke 9:22

Though Jesus had told them the Father's plan, the disciples would not _____ it until after His _____.

Luke 24:18-27

The way to the Father's house runs _____ through Christ.

Jesus is the ONLY way to be _____ to the Father.

John 14:6

In His death, Christ defeated sin and _____, which made it impossible for sinners to have access to God.

Matthew 27:51; Hebrews 9:12

In Christ, we can _____ enter the presence of our Father.

Hebrews 10:19, 22

Jesus doesn't just _____ the truth, He _____ the truth.

John 14:6; John 1:14, 17

The Father _____ that the Son is Truth.

Luke 9:35

The _____ of God are affirmed in Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:19–20

Eternal life can _____ be gained outside of Christ.

John 14:6

Christ is life and proved it at His

_____.
Hebrews 2:14–15

Sin has doomed us all to _____

_____.
Ephesians 2:1-3

Only through Christ, Who is our life, can we ever have _____ life and _____ into the Father's house.

Ephesians 2:4-7

Like the apostles, we can often place the _____ ahead of the _____.

The Messiah, who would conquer sin and death, was _____ in the Old Testament: we just have to look with eyes _____ by the Spirit.

Christ is the _____ glory of God who led the people to the promised land.

Deuteronomy 8:2; John 1:4–5

Christ is the _____ from heaven that fed the people in the wilderness.

Deuteronomy 8:3; John 6:51

Christ is the _____ of _____ for the thirsty soul.

Isaiah 48:21; John 4:14

All efforts to reach the Father's house outside of faith in Christ will always lead to disappointment, _____, and _____.

Jeremiah 2:13