

To Love Jesus is to Obey His Word
John 14:15

Jesus had been drawing His followers away from their _____.

They were sorrowful because He declared to them that He would be _____ from them.

John 12:32–33; 13:33, 36; 14:3

The news caused the disciples to be _____ and _____.

John 14:1; John 13:37–38; 14:5, 8-9

Jesus laid down seven wonderful little ____ / _____ statements for His disciples and us in John 14.

There is a place for you in the _____: if it were not so, then Jesus would have told us otherwise.

John 14:2

If Jesus has gone to prepare a place for us, then He will _____ and _____ us.

John 14:3

If you want to know the _____, then you need to know _____ first.

John 14:7; Hebrews 1:3

If you _____ according to the will of God, then you may be _____ that Jesus will answer it.

John 14:14; Matthew 6:9–10

If you truly love _____, then you may be certain that the _____ loves you.

John 14:23

If you truly love Jesus, then you will _____ that He has _____ to the Father.

John 14:28

The “if” we will look at is _____ to the _____ of those who love Jesus.

If you say you love Jesus, then you will _____ His _____.
John 14:15

Love for Christ is the _____ from which _____ flows.
John 14:23

This statement is anchored in a _____ in the Word of God.
1 John 5:2–3

Jesus is not questioning the love of the disciples, but the reality that all _____ stems from a misplaced _____. Peter declared boldly that he would never _____ Jesus, yet his love for _____ - _____ won out.
Mark 14:29, 31

Jesus confronted Peter and three times called him to affirm his _____ for Jesus through his _____.
John 21:15-17

The commandment that Jesus calls His disciples to _____ has been made _____ already. Jesus gave His disciples a “_____” to love one another.
John 13:34

This is a commandment, not a _____ that believers love other _____.
John 13:35

Jesus shows us how to _____, and we are to love as we have been loved.
John 13:34

To love Jesus is to obey His commandment to _____ one another and _____ them.
Colossians 3:12–13