

The Honor of Being a Friend of Christ John 15:15

It is vital that Christians get _____ about becoming too _____ in their relationship with God.

Only _____ Old Testament men were called a _____ of God.

_____ had an _____ declaration of being the friend of God.

Exodus 33:11

_____ was _____ declared to be the friend of God.

Isaiah 41:8; James 2:23

Jesus _____ His disciples by ushering in a _____ in their relationship.

As with biblical _____, the phrase “no longer” indicates a change through _____.

Matthew 19:5–6

Jesus indicated that there will be a new level of _____ in His relationship with the disciples.

John 15:15; Romans 1:1

Christ’s disciples remained in a _____ to Christ.

John 13:16; 15:20; Luke 17:7-10; 1 Samuel 14:6-7

Their newly _____ state simply made them more _____ for being obedient.

Jesus proclaimed that those who are His by _____, are more than just _____.

John 15:15

A servant has no access to the _____
_____ of the Master.
Mark 4:11; Matthew 13:13

The word “_____” indicates that the disciples and all who trust in Christ are brought into a _____ relationship with God.
John 15:15; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11

This new relationship is one of _____ in which Christ _____ to call His disciples His friends.
John 15:15

When Christ calls His disciples His friends, He _____ things not _____ for others to know.
John 15:15; Luke 10:22

That Christ would call us friends carries with it great _____ and _____.

Christians have been _____ from slavery to sin
and have become _____ of righteousness.
Romans 6:17–18, 6:22

We must live in a way that _____ Christ, who makes servants His friends and _____ God’s truth to them.
John 15:14, 15; 1 Peter 1:13–15